

Battle of Okehazama 1560 - Border Fort Marune

In June of 1560, Imagawa Yoshimoto assembled a large army with a dream of rising above a local daimyo to become shogunate of all Japan. All that stood in his path to Kyoto, Japan's capital city, was an old rival, Oda Nobunaga. Yoshimoto's first objective on the march was to secure the Oda controlled border forts. He ordered Motoyasu to attack Marune and after a sharp attack against the fort, Motoyasu retired to a prepared position. The fort's garrison unwisely pursued the retiring forces and Motoyasu sprung his trap and the garrison force was destroyed and the fort captured. The stage is set, the battle lines are drawn, and you are in command. The rest is history.
